I can call 1230 to 1 or 130 to 2 if either of those work for you - otherwise we can try to touch base tomorrow.

Sooo.... I logged into the AltEn Microsoft Teams meeting this morning and see a note in the invite that says the meeting was rescheduled. I then found the rescheduled meeting for October 1st. No problem, I can make the October 1st meeting, but then I just got a call from someone at NDEE who wanted to talk about the discussion that they had with you folks this morning about AltEn. Apparently the meeting wasn't cancelled?
